

CANYON COUNTY SHERIFF'S INMATE LABOR DETAIL PROGRAM

The Canyon County Sheriff's Office (CCSO) Sheriff's Inmate Labor Detail Program (SILD) allows individuals to serve their sentence on a work detail rather than being incarcerated in the jail. The individual is supervised by the Sheriff or his designee. The program is operated seven days a week, twelve months a year, excluding major/national holidays.

RULES/GUIDELINES

1. SILD requires participants to engage in general manual labor, often outdoors. If you have a physical limitation, a doctor's note will be required to advise us of your limitations. It is not CCSO's responsibility to tailor work assignments to your abilities or limitations, but if able to do so, you will be able to complete your SILD days. If you have a medical condition that prevents you from completing your assigned work, you will be required to contact the court and/or set a date to serve your sentence in the jail. It is not CCSO's responsibility to contact the court in the event that you cannot participate in the program due to health and/or medical conditions.
2. Fees for the SILD program are $25.00 per month, ($30.00 per month if not a Canyon County case). The day of the month will be the due date for the next month (11th thru the 10th of the next month as an example). Payment of any kind must be CASH OR MONEY ORDER ONLY IN EXACT CHANGE. If sentenced to one day, then $15. Participants enrolled prior to 1/1/2024 may walk-on at the prior $15 per day
